FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 2.

GENERAL NEWS.

The officers of the Boston Custom House on Friday, in their researches among the passengers of the English steamer China, for smuggled goods, noticed a lady whose conduct and appearance were decidedly suspicious. Upon examination it was discovered that the fair voyager had concealed about her person a number of valuable parcels of jewelry, worth about three thousand dollars.

Bishop Hopkins of Vermont, accompanied by his son, the Rev. J. H. Hopkins, Jr., sailed from New York on Saturday last for New Orleans. The bishop is to reside at the consecration of the Rev. Dr. Wilmer, on the 7th of November, as bishop of Louisiana, and thence proceed to Louisville, to the consecration of the Rev. Dr. Cummins, as assistant bishop of Kentucky.

The New Albany (Ind) Ledger says of the codition and prospects of the coming hog slaughtering season around the falls of the Ohio, that "not a single contract has been made either in New Albany, Louisville, or Jeffersonville. There will be a large hog crop the present season. There is an abundance of the best corn to feed them on."

A Montreal paper says that Wm. F. Armstrong, the colored barber of the Ottawa House there, absconded last Tuesday, taking with him from $10,000 to $14,000 in borrowed money, $700 in jewelry, and $800 in clothing.

A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from San Francisco, says that California is not only feeding herself and furnishing a surplus, but is rapidly supplying her own manufactures.

The trials by military commission of certain civilians mentioned in the Steedman-Fullerton report, at Raleigh, N. C., have been ordered to be proceeded with immediately.
